

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL

When We Too Walked in Arcady
When we two walked in Arcady,
How sweet the summers were,
How thick the branches overhead,
How soft the grass beneath our tread,
And thickets where the sun burned red
Were full of wings as air, my dear,
When we two walked in Arcady
Through paths young hearts prefer.

Since we two walked in Arcady,
(How long ago it seems)
High hopes have died disconsolate;
The calm-eyed angel men call Fate
Stands with drawn sword before the
That shuts out all our dreams, my dear;
Since we two walked in Arcady
Beside the crystal streams.

Beyond the woods of Arcady
The little brooks no dry,
The brown grass rustles in the heat,
The roads are rough beneath our feet,
Above our heads no branches meet,
And yet, although we sigh, my dear,
Beyond the woods of Arcady
We seek more of the sky!

Taliaferro—Christian.

A beautiful June wedding was celebrated Wednesday afternoon at 5:30 o'clock in Grace Episcopal Church, when Miss Elizabeth Curle Christian was given in marriage to Mr. Charles Mann Taliaferro, of New York.

The church was lovely in the faint glow of pink flowers against a background of palms, the altar illumination being in white wax tapers, set in silver and crystal candelabra.

Miss Mattie Harrison Christian was her sister's maid of honor, wearing a pretty gown of white silk with a pink Dresden girle, and a big pink tulle hat trimmed in white roses. She carried an arm bouquet of pink sweet peas.

Two charming little ribbon bearers, preceding the bride party and holding the ribbons along the entire length of the aisle, were Misses Jane Warren Christian, niece of the bride, and Marie Jones. The little maidens were in dainty white frocks, with soft, full pink sashes.

The groom met the bride at the church with his best man, Mr. Robert Catesby Taliaferro. He was also attended by Messrs. William Wallace and Fairfax Cary Christian, brothers of the bride; Mr. Roy M. Jones, Mr. Irving E. Campbell, Mr. Lucius F. Cary and Mr. Edmund Christian, of Norfolk.

Dr. W. H. O. McGeehe, who was at the organ, played the processional and recessional wedding marches and, during the wedding service, the soft strains of "Believe Me, It All Those Endearing Young Charms."

The bride entered the church with her father, Mr. William Christian, who gave her away. She was a vision of girlish loveliness in her bridal robes of white crepe de chine, over white tulle, and a white tulle veil fastened with orange blossoms. Her flowers were a shower of white sweet peas.

After receiving the congratulations of their friends, Mr. and Mrs. Taliaferro left for a wedding trip to the Maine coast and Canada, after which they will make their home in New York city.

Bridal gifts in silver, cut glass and other beautiful and useful articles were evidences of the love and esteem of their many friends.

The bride is the granddaughter, through her mother, of Lucius F. Cary, of Williamsburg, Va. On her father's side, she is descended from Dr. William Albert Christian, of "Crakston," Henrico county, Mr. Taliaferro is the son of Mrs. Robert Brooke Taliaferro, of Gloucester county. He is now successfully established in business in New York city.

Out-of-town guests who came to Richmond for the wedding were: Mr. and Mrs. Robert E. Lee Lewis, of Plainfield, N. J.; Mr. William F. Taliaferro, of New York, a brother of the groom; Mr. and Mrs. Wilson Lawrence Smith, of Charlottesville, Va.; Miss Nina Johns, of Norfolk; Mr. and Mrs. George Mason and Mrs. Cabanis, of Petersburg; Mr. Edmund Christian, of Norfolk; and Mrs. A. H. Drewry, of Charles City county.

Crute—Martin.

Miss Elizabeth Robertson Martin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John R. Martin, of Farmville, Va., was married Wednesday evening at 6 o'clock to Dr. Charles Bledsoe Crute, son of Judge Joseph M. Crute, graduate of the University of the South at Sewanee, and a well known young physician in Farmville.

The ceremony took place in the home of the bride, the Rev. J. R. Winn, of the Methodist Episcopal Church, officiating. The bride, who has recently been the guest of Miss Nellie Gray, in Richmond, has many friends here, and the marriage is of unusual interest to Richmond and Farmville society.

Miss May Paullet was maid of honor to the bride, and Dr. J. E. Cannaday, of West Virginia, was best man. Messrs. E. Scott Martin, Vernon P. Paullet and W. B. Agnew were the ushers. The music was directed by Miss Robbin Berkeley and decorations were in pink and green.

The bride walked to the altar with her father. She wore a white lace robe over a white gown, with a white tulle veil and a white tulle hat. She carried a bouquet of white sweet peas.

After the reception following the ceremony, Mr. and Mrs. Crute left for an extended Northern tour.

Graham—Powell.

At the wedding of Miss Katherine Belle Powell to Mr. J. Montrose Graham, taking place at 8:30 o'clock this evening in the Second Presbyterian Church, the Rev. Dr. Russell Cecil will perform the ceremony. The church will be decorated in pink and white.

Mr. William Graham, the groom's brother, will be best man, and his groomsmen will include Mr. Augustus A. Booth, Mr. Julian Gunn, Mr. Leroy Graham, Mr. Alex. Graham, Mr. James McLean and Mr. Carlton McKenny.

The bride will be gowned in white silk with a white tulle hat and a white tulle veil. She will carry a bouquet of white sweet peas.

Miss Grace Adelaide Powell, of New York, the maid of honor, will be in white crepe de chine. Her flowers will be pink roses.

Little Misses Grace Goodall and Anne Graham will hold the ribbons, attired in dainty white organdy frocks and white ribbons. The ceremony will not be followed by a reception, as the bride party was entertained in the home of the bride last evening. The honeymoon will be spent at Asheville and Atlantic City, after which Mr. and Mrs. Graham will make their home at No. 1018 Floyd Avenue.

The bride, who is the daughter of Mrs. Grace Dunn Goodall, has, for some time, been the leading soprano in the choir of the Second Presbyterian Church. Her many accomplishments and her charming personality have won her scores of friends in social and musical circles. Mr. Graham is a son of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Graham, of No. 1018 Floyd Avenue, and is associated in business with the Southern Express Company. The marriage is an event of unusual interest.

A CONQUEST.

By FANNY PARNELL.

Francis Isabel Parnell was born in 1854; died in 1882. She was a sister of Charles Stewart Parnell and the granddaughter of Commodore Stewart, commander of the United States frigate Constitution.

FOUND him openly wearing her token;
I knew that her troth could never be broken;
I laid my hand on the hilt of my sword,
He did the same, and he spoke no word;
I faced him with his villainy;
He laughed and said, "She gave it to me."
We searched for seconds, they soon were found;
They measured our swords; they measured the ground;
They held to the deadly work too fast;
They fought to gain our place at last.
We fought in the sheen of a wintry wood;
The fair white snow was red with his blood;
But his was the victory, for, as he died,
He swore by the road that he had not lied.

This poem began in the Times-Dispatch Sunday, October 11, 1903. One is published each day.

moon. Their future home will be in Indianapolis.

Among the out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. H. O. Smith, Mrs. Frances C. Dorsey, Mrs. Harvey Moore, Mrs. J. T. Layman and Miss Katherine Layman, of Indianapolis, Ind.; Mr. Herbert Lyall, of New York city; Mrs. George Miles, of Appomattox; and Mrs. R. S. Savage and Mrs. John Mahoney, of Richmond.

Brinkerhoff—Houston.

At 11 A. M. to-day, in the home of the bride's grandfather, Mr. G. A. Endley, of Chase City, Virginia, the wedding of Miss Jean Carrington Houston to Mr. Robert Moore Brinkerhoff will be celebrated. The bride is the daughter of Thomas Benton and Alice Endley Houston. The groom is a son of Mr. R. A. Brinkerhoff, of Toledo, Ohio, is cartoonist for the Toledo Blade. The bride's home is also in Toledo. Her grandfather, Mr. Endley, has lived for some years in Chase City, and has been a prominent factor in its development. He has many friends in Richmond.

The Endley home will be decorated for the wedding in honeysuckle, roses and ferns; the mantels banked with honeysuckle. In the dining room marguerites and ferns will be used.

The only attendant will be the ring-bearer, little Gordon Nelson Edmunds, in light blue mousseline de sole. The bride will wear white silk net over mousseline de sole, with lace garniture, and a tulle veil. Her only ornament will be a pearl brooch that belonged to her grandmother. Her flowers will be white roses.

The ceremony will be witnessed only by the immediate relatives of the contracting parties. A wedding breakfast was served immediately after the wedding. Out-of-town guests were the bride's mother and sister, Mrs. B. Houston and Miss Georgia Houston; the groom's father and sister, Mr. and Mrs. A. Brinkerhoff; and Miss Esther Brinkerhoff, all of Toledo, Ohio, and Mr. Oscar Boyd, of Clarksville, Va.

Mr. and Mrs. Brinkerhoff leave to-day for Philadelphia, where they will sail June 10th for Europe. They will be at home after November first at Toledo, Ohio.

Historic Relics.

The New York Herald of Wednesday, through its Washington correspondent, makes the following mention of valuable relics recently purchased by the Mount Vernon Association.

"Colonel Andrew Jackson, of Nashville, Tenn., has sold the old Washington chair, the most prized relic of President Jackson, to the Mount Vernon Association for $7,500. This chair was used by General Washington to his family.

The Crank family gave it to General Jackson. The other relic is a mahogany shaving stand, which was used by General Washington. This table, which is in a remarkable state of preservation, was presented to General Washington by the first French minister accredited to the United States. The heirloom was purchased by the Board of Regents from Mrs. Thomas C. Cox, who inherited it. The stand was used by General Washington to Dr. David Stuart, of Fairfax, Va., whose first wife was a Miss Washington. At his death the table was handed down to William Robinson, who willed it to his daughter, Mrs. Cox. Mrs. Cox declines to disclose the price. It is understood to have been $4,000."

Will Be at Home.

Mr. and Mrs. Moses Thalhimer and Miss Irma Thalhimer will be at home to their friends Friday, June 8th, from 5 to 8 o'clock.

Personal Mention.

Mrs. Isa Carrington Cabell, who is the guest of Mrs. J. Caskey Cabell, at No. 619 East Franklin Street, attended the annual meeting of the Colonial Dames Tuesday afternoon.

Miss Sue Spilman will join a party of friends, who will go for a house-party to Sullivan's Island, in Charleston Harbor, S. C., during the month of June. Miss Spilman, who visited Mrs. J. H. Crenshaw, of Charleston, last winter, is looking forward to a delightful time.

Mr. A. Langstaff Johnston, Jr., left Monday night for Boca, State of Chihuahua, Mexico, to inspect some mines of the Almoloya Mining Company. Mr. Johnston will visit the city of Mexico before returning to Virginia.

Miss Mary Mountcastle, who has been visiting her mother, Mr. George Woolf, of Mountcastle, Va., will be at home to her friends at her home at Mountcastle, Va.

Miss Emily Hutchinson, of Richmond, and Mr. Leonard Wettsott, of Cincinnati, Ohio, who have been visiting Mrs. W. K. McCue, at the White House, have returned to their homes.

Miss Carrie F. Yearby is the guest of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. L. Yearby, who will soon celebrate their golden wedding anniversary.

Mr. J. W. S. Farrar, of Danville, is in Richmond, where he will make his home in the future. Mr. Farrar is a scholar, and his home to his home in a few days.

Mrs. Terry B. Gordon, of Norfolk, and her guests, Mrs. Eugene Carpenter, of Boston, and Miss Alice Koons, of Plainfield, N. J., are in Richmond for a few days.

Miss Daisie Meador is the guest of Miss Vivian Wright at Park View, Portsmouth.

Mr. and Mrs. M. Armstrong, of Norfolk, have returned to their home after a pleasant visit to Richmond.

Miss Willie Powers is the guest of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Powers, on Twenty-second Street, Newport News.

Mrs. C. O. Herring, of Staunton, has returned from a family reunion in this city.

Miss Lucretia Knox, who has been visiting the Misses Reynolds, at Lower Main Richmond, has returned to her home.

Miss Rita Florence is in the city, after spending a month in Newport News as the guest of her cousin, Miss Rose Tyler, on Thirty-first Street.

Miss Jessie Rayno, who has been the guest of her uncle, Mr. George Ashby, has returned to her home in this city.

The annual exercises in memory of the Confederate dead will be held in Blandford Cemetery, Petersburg, on Friday afternoon, June 10th, and will be a most impressive and interesting occasion. There will be a parade, in charge of General Smith Bolling. The memorial program will be delivered by the Rev. P. Corbin Braxton Bryan. All places of business in Petersburg will be closed in the afternoon and many stores will be appropriately decorated.

The Rev. Dr. B. N. Caliseh, of Temple Beth Ahabad, this city, will sail about the middle of June for England, where he will use the libraries of Oxford University in preparation of his thesis for his Ph. D. degree at the University of Virginia. "The Jew in English Literature," the thesis, is one of the most popular and broad-minded citizens of the State, is an orator as well as a scholar, and his reputation is not confined to the South.

Mrs. J. R. Hubbard, of Norfolk, Va., is the guest of Mrs. J. Taylor Ellison at No. 19 East Franklin Street.

Announcement was made in New York Tuesday of the engagement of Miss Estelle Liebling, a well known singer, to Mr. Henry Mosler, a well known artist in New York City. The wedding will take place next autumn, after which the young couple will take a short wedding tour through the South.

Miss Bessie Frazier, who is the guest of Miss Katherine Newbliss, Mr. Davis

Jordan, Mr. Spencer Aldrich and Mr. Charles Whitcomb, of the University of Virginia, and Mr. Lloyd Freeman will leave Norfolk Saturday to spend a week at the Willoughby Club, at Willoughby Beach, as the guests of Miss Nan Freeman. The party will be accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. William H. Venable, of Norfolk.

Two weddings of interest to Virginia brides took place at the University of Virginia, daughter of the late Rev. James D. Thomas, of Virginia, to Mr. Raphael Rice, of the University of Virginia, and that of Miss Estelle Randolph Hughes, of this State, to Dr. Compton Riley, of Baltimore, were announced in the Baltimore papers of yesterday, as taking place in that city on Tuesday, June 6th.

Miss Mattie Olney, who has been visiting Miss Olney Minor, of West Grace Street, will leave for her home in Charleston, W. Va., on Friday. Miss Olney has been the recipient of much attention and admiration during her stay in Richmond, and her many friends note her departure with regret.

Mrs. I. H. Kaufman, of No. 913 West Grace Street, regrets to inform her friends that owing to ill health she will be unable to receive them next Friday.

Leaf Tobacco Market.
The sales of leaf tobacco on the Exchange yesterday amounted to 200 packages, made up mostly of the commoner grades, but few wrappers showing up. There was not as large a proportion of the better grades as in previous weeks. The market remains steady and unchanged with wrappers very much in demand and bringing high prices when any are offered. Other types are not so active, but the market is firm at former quotations.

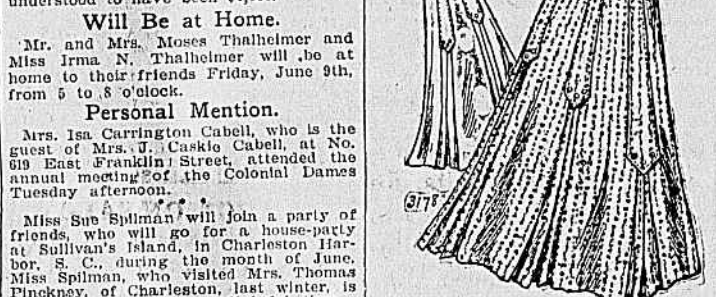

In the City Courts.
In the Housing Court yesterday, Charles Payne was given three years for grand larceny.
J. A. Elliott and William Brown were acquitted of charges of felony in the same court. The City Circuit Court yesterday had on trial the case of Jerome Taylor (receiving) vs. Neal and Binford. The amount of damages asked is $4,313.11, and the suit grows out of the alleged adulteration of some lanka beans sold by the defendant to the plaintiff.

Transfer of Bonds.
The books of the State treasurer's office will be closed for the transfer of bonds on Friday. Several small transfers of Riddibergers and Centuries were recorded yesterday, and a number of others are likely in the intervening period.
